Ryûkyû Kobudô

Ryûkyû is the name of an island chain in the south-west of Japan. Its most important island is Okinawa which belongs to Japan today. In former times, the inhabitants of these islands often had to fight against the encroachments of pirates and occupying forces from Japan. Therefore, they made use of their everyday tools as weapons. The fighting techniques developed this way, are closely connected with modern Karate and are called Kobu-Jutsu. Nowadays, the practice of these fighting techniques serves the development of one's character and is, thus, called Kobu-Dô.
