Dōjō - licences

In order to be allowed to officially teach Teshshinkan Kobudō in his Dōjō, a Dōjō license must be obtained from the President (Kaichō) of the Ryūkyū Kobudō Teshshinkan Kyō Kai.

(In principle, this is a common procedure in Okinawa. Once a senpai has reached at least the 5th Dan, he may ask his sensei if he can open his own dōjō. If his sensei approves this, the senpai pays him an annual fee to teach his system there.

The whole thing is comparable to a computer program. If you want to use it, you have to buy a license.)

Criteria for obtaining a Dōjō license / Shibu-Dōjō 支部 道場:

- The Dōjō must have a teacher with a Shidōin title.
- A one-time admission fee of currently 10,000 yen.
- An annual license fee of currently 10,000 yen.

The granting of the Dōjō license is legitimized annually by a deed.

Requirements to obtain the Shidōin 指導員 (Instructor) title:

- * at least 3rd Dan Ryūkyū Kobudō Teshshinkan Kyō Kai
- * examination for Shidōin (Instructor) at the earliest one year after the examination for 3rd Dan
- * practical exam
 - Bō- and Sai-techniques per announcement
(Not necessarily Bō- or Sai-no-Kihon!)
 - Demonstration of a kata of the examinee's choice
- * exam fee currently 30,000 yen
- * The Shidōin exam can be taken with the President (Kaichō) of the Ryūkyū Kobudō Teshshinkan Kyō Kai or with the Shibu-Chō for Europe.

Annual renewal of the Dōjō license:

- ☞ The license period is limited to May 22, the founding date of the Ryūkyū Kobudō Teshshinkan Kyō Kai, of the following year and must be renewed annually.

For this purpose, the holders of a Dōjō license must submit their written renewal application including the license fee (currently 10,000 yen) to the Technical Director of their respective country (Shibu-Chō) by March 31 of each year, who forwards it collectively to the President (Kaichō) of the Ryūkyū Kobudō Teshshinkan Kyō Kai, alternatively to the Technical Director for Europe.
